TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LAUSANNE CONFERENCE.

GOOD WEEK'S WORK.

HIGH HOPES OF FINAL SUCCESS.

LAUSANNE, November 26.
The sum total of the week's work by the Conference has been to settle Turkey's European frontier along the Maritza, leaving West Thrace to Greece; to establish a broad demilitarised zone between Turkey on the one side and Greece and Bulgaria on the other; and incidentally to carry out the promise in the Treaty of Neuilly by giving Bulgaria an outlet to the Aegean at Dedeagach or in its neighbourhood.

Indications are that there is a good chance of the conference succeeding. After Thrace, Turkey's Asiatic frontiers will be considered, then the all-important question of the Straits, for which the Russian delegates are en route for Lausanne.

BALKAN BLOC RECREATED.

The return of Turkey to Europe has recreated the Balkan bloc, consisting of Greece, Rumania and Yugoslavia. Bulgaria has declined to join the bloc owing to Greece opposing the cession of Dedeagach to Bulgaria, while Turkey is apparently willing to pay the price of Bulgarian co-operation.

BERLIN, November 26.

Part of the Russian delegation headed by M. Rakovsky has arrived on route for Lausanne.

LAUSANNE, November 26.
It is learned from an American source that Mr. Childs' statement is merely a clear exposition of the traditional policy of the United States in favour of the open door. There is no ulterior motive in the statement does not represent any new policy with regard to American interests in Europe or anything else.

The statement was made yesterday because Mr. Childs considered the moment propitious at this early non-committal stage of the conference. Nevertheless the statement surprised some quarters. Some persist in believing it is not entirely unconnected with oil.

BOMBHELL.

PARIS, November 26.

Le Journal's Lausanne correspondent wires that Mr. Childs' statement has been a bombshell to the conference, especially the British delegates; but the Turks are pleased because Turkey has promised so many things to so many people that she is finding it difficult to steer a safe course.

The Figaro's correspondent expresses the opinion that the statement is aimed not only at the San Remo agreement but also at the Franco-Kemalist agreement.

[The American observer, Mr. Childs, in a statement to the First Commission, emphasised that the sentiment of the American people overwhelmingly favoured the policy laid down in the memorandum of October 30 in reply to the invitation to be represented at the Conference, namely the assumption that the Allies will not carry into effect agreements in respect to Turkish territory which conflict with the principle of equality of economic opportunity and the open door.]

MORE ARMS ARREST.

CHINESE WOMAN'S TOY PISTOL.

"GOOD ENOUGH TO STOP ANYONE."

A Chinese woman was charged before Mr. R. E. Lidsell this morning with the unlawful possession of a small lady's revolver and 150 rounds of ammunition.

Mr. F. G. Vaux, defending, said that his client who had lived a number of years in America, was taking the revolver to her home in Kowloon. She was about to leave Hongkong by the s.s. "Tailee" when the revolver was found in her belt. Mr. Vaux suggested that the weapon was not a dangerous one, and was more likely to be a danger to its owner than anyone else.

Sergeant Fallon admitted that the weapon, which was of French make, was "more like a toy pistol," but the ammunition was good enough to "stop anyone." However, the police had no reason to disbelieve the defendant was a bona fide traveller.

A fine of $100 was imposed and the contraband was confiscated.

BOX'S SINISTER CONTENTS.

A Chinese was charged before Mr. J. R. Wood this morning with the unlawful possession of two revolvers, one loaded in five chambers.

Sergeant Andrew said at 7.15 p.m. on November 14, he executed a search warrant at No. 31, Wang Street, Kowloon City in company with Sub-Inspector Manick Wilson and Shannan. A locked box was found and the revolver and ammunition were found. Both weapons were retrievable. Defendant said seven other men in the house at the time were detained.

SUN YAT-SEN RETURNING?

FORMER SALT COMMISSIONER'S STATEMENT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, Nov. 27.

Chow Loo, who was Salt Commissioner when Dr. Sun Yat-sen was in Canton has sent a circular telegram to the Canton salt merchants intimating that the "anti-rebellion" troops are marching south and that Dr. Sun will return soon. He will not recognise any loans made to General Chen's government and advises them not to make the advance requested by the present Salt Commissioner.

IN THE BOX THE WITNESS ALSO FOUND THE DEFENDANT'S PHOTOGRAPH.

The Magistrate enquired how the arms were brought home to the defendant.

Inspector Wilson said defendant admitted to him at the station that the box belonged to him.

Defendant said the arms were put in his box by a man named Cheung Choy and suggested that another man named Wong Kam'at knew something about them.

The Magistrate held defendant responsible and sentenced him to twelve months' jail.

REVOLVER IN PILLOW.

Arrested by Sergeant Andrew on board the s.s. "President Wilson" yesterday for the unlawful possession of a revolver found when in the pillow of a Chinese named Wong Yee-sai this morning. Defendant, Mr. J. R. Wood, said he was on the ship at the time the revolver was found.

THE DOLLAR.

To-day's closing rate 3/4 0/16.
To-day's opening rate 2/4 0/16.

GERMANY'S TERRIBLE BURDEN.

FEDERAL COOPERATION WANTED.

BERLIN, November 26.
In the Reichsrath, Herr Cuno announced he would shortly summon a meeting of the members of the Federal States to secure cooperation in solving Germany's problems.

Germany's budgetary deficit was now 890,000 million marks of which only 45,000 million was covered by this year's proceeds from the compulsory loan.

BARRER IN AMERICA.

GERMAN RAIDER OFFICER.

CINCINNATI, November 26.

Mr. Hamilton Cook, National Commander of the disabled American veterans of the world war, declares that the veterans will do everything legal in their power to prevent Captain von Mücke, former Commander of the German raider "Boden" from carrying out his proposal to lecture in the United States shortly.

INDIAN COAL EMBARGO.

BEING PROVISIONALLY REMOVED.

DELHI, November 26.

The Government of India announces the provisional removal of the embargo on the export of coal from January 1. If the distribution scheme introduced last July works well the removal of the embargo will be possible.

CLEMENCEAU'S CHARGES.

USUAL DENIAL NOW.

NEWHAVEN, CONNECTICUT, Nov. 26.

M. Clemenceau has declared he did not charge the British with wilfully permitting the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow.

AMERICAN MINE DISASTER.

STILL ANOTHER ONE.

SANTA FE, November 26.

Seven persons were killed and 30 injured in a mine disaster.

WOULDN'T WASH.

RICE THIEF'S PLEA.

While the s.s. "Kiang" was discharging rice the other day a detective saw a man walking away with a bag of rice on his shoulder. Questioned, the man said the rice was given to him by the crew but this could not be substantiated and this morning he was produced before Commander Beckwith R. N. at the Marine Court and awarded a month's jail for being on board without permission.

The defendant explained that it was only rice sweepings he took and that he was hungry but this plea lost something of its force when he made unsuccessful representations afterwards to have his sentence commuted to a fine, undertaking to pay any reasonable penalty up to $25.

ARMED MEN.

HILLSIDE MATCHED INMATES ROBBED.

Seven armed robbers broke into an unnumbered matchbox on the hillside at the back of Bay View on Saturday night. They bound and gagged the inmates and then stole jewellery, money and clothing worth $264. The robbers escaped in the direction of Teatohimui, beyond the Ming Yuen gardens.

General Chin Chong ming has sent a telegram instructing Hong Kong Police to do all he can to capture at How Kien, ex-Tsuhun of Fukien and at the same time persuade him to pay a visit to Canton. It has stated that he is supposed with plans for the re-occupation of Fukien and will remain in Canton for the present, stating that this is a preliminary.

ODDS AND ENDS.*MAINLY SCISSORS LOOK.*A Bitter Remembrance.

One of the bitterest sayings of Thomas Carlyle is recorded by a friend who visited him one Christmas afternoon to offer greetings. "Ah, yes," said Carlyle, "I had forgotten: but just now passing the public-house at the corner I remarked that the crowd was larger and more drunken than usual and then I remembered that it was the birthday of their Redeemer." Carlyle, if he were here, would scarcely pass the same remark now (observes the Sunday at Home), though there are some things in our contemporary celebrations which we should like to see altered.

Victims of Wild Animals.

Despite the large increase in the number of licences issued and the rewards paid, little improvement is shown in the returns just issued of the mortality from wild animals and venomous snakes last year. In British India, where 3,360 were killed by wild animals, tigers were responsible for 1,454 deaths, leopards 560, wolves 556, bears 69, elephants 70 and hyenas 10. The lives lost from snakebite totalled 19,395. These figures exclude the native States, wherein it is reckoned that the mortality is almost equal. The only satisfactory feature of the return of the last five years is the steady decline in deaths from snakebite. During the year nearly 25,000 wild animals were destroyed, and over two lakhs of rupees were paid in rewards, while 57,000 snakes were destroyed.

Have You A Singing Voice?

Dame Clara Butt writes in the October number of Good Housekeeping on Singing as a Profession for Women:—"I wanted to write this article without quoting the old time saying: 'Singers are born, not made,' but I feel it comes in well here to emphasize what I wish to say. Everyone can learn how to sing. To be a singer, one of the voices of the world, a minstrel, is another thing. I am one of those who do not believe in the light that is hidden under a bushel, or that great gifts are lost to the world. Let the light be strong enough, and it will soon burn up any old bushel. Of course, progress may be delayed by bad teaching or misuse of the voice, and one often sees examples of this. It is a real joy to come across a pure untouching voice, and it happens too rarely, simply because directly they find they have a voice, people rush off to be taught and, as in most professions, there are so many 'frauds' that the choice of a teacher is most important. One had better not be taught at all than fall into the hands of some so-called voice-trainer."

A New Game.

A new game has just been invented which is likely to come rapidly into favour, writes a correspondent to the Daily Chronicle. It has all the distinguished attributes of "Beavers," but is much more subtle, and is likely to beat that amusement hollow. It is played by two, for preference; by more if necessary. Conspiracy and cunning are at the bottom of the whole business, which is known as "Lure." Let two players travel together on an omnibus, say, from Liverpool Street to Claring Cross. Passing the Mansion House A may say to B, "What a wonderful architect Wren was." If a stranger on the bus is "lured," and points out that Wren was not responsible for the Mansion House, then A scores one. A little later B, pointing to St. Paul's, says, "I think the Gallery is the finest theatre in London." If no one troubles to correct his imbecility then A will have scored another point. And so on. The game may be played at the dinner table, when friends surround one, as well as in any public place. Indeed, it may be played anywhere, and has endless possibilities.

Wives and Mothers.

Rebecca West, the well-known feminist writes in the October issue of Good Housekeeping on the possibility of married women carrying on careers outside their homes. "It is not by any means settled in most people's minds whether a married woman ought to have a career outside the home. That question can be undecidedly divided in the affirmative in two cases. The first is the case of the married woman without children. The children's wife who repudiates the force of her being on her home—unless she be so wealthy that looking after her home entails the management of an estate—is putting all her capital into an uncertain investment. Men are apt to take the rosiest possible view of their capacities; and in estimating the extent to which they can provide for the happiness of their wives, they are liable to forget that they do sometimes die. When a woman who has wholly absorbed herself in her husband's life intellectually, as well as spiritually, loses him, she endures something worse than widowhood. She becomes a and lumberer of the earth; and not even means and social position will save her. The childless widow of a famous man, drifting about the world where she is figured with him, dressing just as carefully, but not for anybody, is sadly conscious that she is not quite so warmly welcomed as she was when her husband was alive. She is also, though

THE CHINA MAIL

"TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE"

HONGKONG, Monday, Nov. 27, 1922.

THE "SUI AN" INQUIRY.

Seven days ago, it is now since Hongkong was startled by the news of the "Sui An" piracy. These seven days people have discussed and analyzed and criticized almost every detail of the outrage. They have glibly explained how the piracy could have been completely averted; how, once started, every single bandit could have been captured; and, of course, how another similar outrage can be made practically impossible. Guards, grills, steam hoses, wireless, searching—these and other precautions (some useful, many fanciful) they have weighed often with the solemn and happy assurance of the uninformed. "Sui An" exploits are, unfortunately, rare enough in local waters, and people naturally wish to make the most of this one. Mostly their comment has been harmless enough, while some has been interesting—indeed, a little has been quite helpful. Much, however, has been mischievous and much, grossly unfair with certain points largely subjective, the inquiry not yet held. Seven days now the wordy battle has raged, and yet the official silence continues.

Once the full story of the piracy had been told, it was stated an inquiry was "probable." Then followed the report that an inquiry was "almost certain." And there the matter has since rested. Official news that an inquiry will be held is still awaited. Assuredly an inquiry will be held; many points must be investigated properly if the lessons of the "Sui An" piracy are to become known and, where possible, incorporated in the Colony's legislation against piracy. Doubtless the wireless committee will explore the question of wireless for these river steamers. The "Sui An" inquiry can confine its attention to weighing the efficacy of existing and proposed precautions. Many people seem to see nothing unfair in laying the blame for neglect and alleged failure on their information. has been attested—this with freedom that would bring unpleasant consequences for a newspaper guilty of the same offense. Therefore it behooves the authorities to make speedy announcement that an inquiry will be held, and preferably also, when this action might possibly stop much idle and mischievous chatter.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Five junk men were picked up near Hoihow by the s.s. "Mike Maru" which arrived in Hongkong yesterday.

The Royal Hongkong Golf Club "Jasper Clark" Challenge Cup will be played for at Fanling on Sunday, December 3.

One case of enteric fever, Chinese, was notified during the 48 hours ended yesterday.

Lieutenant Conway Hake R.N.R. arrived back from leave by the s.s. "Gleniffer" on Saturday and resumed duty as Assistant Harbour Master to-day.

The screening of "The Three Musketeers" at the Coronet has had to be unavoidably postponed and for to-day only "All's Right" the popular British comedy, will be shown.

Hongkong is dependent to some extent on Tung Koon for mutton. Very little has been arriving in the Colony lately as the workmen there have "downed tools" for better wages and conditions.

Housekeepers should lay in a supply of fresh meat for to-morrow when the butchers have a holiday. The occasion is the inaugural of their Guild. They will resume work on Wednesday as usual.

Six performers of "The Tempest" are to be given. The dates are given in an announcement among to-day's advertisements. Booking opens at Moutrie's on December 1 and early booking is advised.

The total population of Peking according to the last investigation is reported to be 811,136, comprised of 515,640 men and 305,376 women. As many as 100,000 are without profession, or are residing temporarily in Peking waiting for positions.

An advertisement published in this issue notified that the introduction of the revised import tariff of 1922 on goods imported into China by the Kowloon Canton railway which was previously notified as to come into force from December 1 is postponed.

Our Canton correspondent states: The Canton authorities are sending special men to investigate the fire at Tai Sha Tow which destroyed the aeroplane workshop. Several reactionaries are suspected and detectives have been detailed to prevent future outbreaks.

On Saturday, the Kwangtung Provincial Bank destroyed over three million dollars of cancelled twenty cents notes, states our Canton correspondent. The notes were packed into eighty-six cases and sent to the Electric Co.'s premises on the Bund, where they were burned.

According to our Canton correspondent, Wong Keung, the new Director of the Arsenal, is proceeding with the manufacture of a grenade projected from a kind of rifle. This grenade, unless several precautions are taken, results in injury for the user. A number have been sent to the Fuki front.

There will doubtless be a large audience at St. Andrew's Church Hall, Kowloon, at nine o'clock this evening to hear Mr. Christopher Pilkington give a lantern lecture on "Wanderings in West Africa." Mr. Pilkington is lecturer for the Solborne Society, London, and has made an extensive tour round the world. No charge is being made for admission.

A Chinese editor enclosed a rejection slip, when returning would be contributions, which read as follows: "We have read your manuscript with infinite delight. Never before have we revelled in such a masterpiece. If we printed it the authorities would order us to take it for a model, and henceforth never print anything inferior to it. As it would be impossible to find its equal within ten thousand years, we are compelled, though shaken with sorrow, to return your living manuscript and for so doing we beg one million pardons!"

BURNED TO DEATH.

10-YEAR OLD GIRL MISSED IN FIRE P.N.I.

TWO BIG MAINLAND BLAZES.

KATTAN COMPANY'S $30,000 LOSS.

Both the Hongkong and Kowloon Fire Brigades had a busy time yesterday, when they were called out to cope with two big fires which broke out within a couple of hours of each other in Taihang village and the Yaumatei end of Canton Road, respectively.

The Taihang fire broke out about 10.15 p.m. The Brigade received a late call and when the engines arrived, four small two-storey houses—Nos. 28, 28B, Tanglowan—were found to be well ablaze. Two of the houses, all of which were flimsy structures, were used as workshop by the China Kattan Products Co. and the other two as cowsheds. All the structures collapsed within a short time. This gave the fire-fighters an advantage and with several hoses giving good pressure of water, they soon had the upper hand. How the fire originated is not known. All the cattle were removed from the cowsheds as soon as the blaze was discovered, so that the dairy people suffered little loss, excepting some hay stored in the sheds. The Chinese Kattan Products Co. suffered damage to the extent of $30,000, which is, however, covered by insurance.

The alarm of the Yaumatei fire was received at 4.25 p.m. It originated in the ground floor of No. 136, Canton Road, the ground floor of which was used for storing gunny bags and peanuts by an oil pressing firm. These f.d. the flames well and soon the whole house was involved. The fire-fighters turned their attention to the houses on either side, and these they succeeded in saving. No 136 was completely gutted, and the flames were not got under control until 7 p.m. A Chinese working-class woman living on the first floor, left her 10-year-old daughter alone in the cubicle. The child was overlooked by the other inmates in their haste to get away, and she was burned to death. The extent of damage done by this blaze has not yet been ascertained.

ARSON ATTEMPT.

EUROPEAN SERGEANT'S PROMPT ACTION.

BIG BLAZE AVERTED.

An attempt to commit arson at No. 7, Singan Street in the central district, was discovered by Sergeant Ellis at 1.45 this morning, and his prompt action averted what might have been a big blaze. The Sergeant was out on special duty with some Chinese detectives when he noticed that the staircase of the house was well ablaze. He next discovered that some sackings saturated with kerosene were burning merrily, and the flames had already begun to char the woodwork. The Sergeant and his fukis promptly attacked the flames with their truncheons and after a stiff fight, succeeded in putting them out.

Enquiries made by a China Mail reporter among the Chinese led to nothing definite, but he discovered there is a strong rumour that the house was occupied by a Chinese newspaperman who had got on the "wrong side" of a secret society by his writings.

WEEK-END REFLECTION.

MAGISTRATE REDUCES HEAVY SENTENCE.

Mr. R. E. Lindsay this morning revised his decision in the case in which a young Chinese was sentenced on Friday to six months' hard labour on each of two charges of uttering a forged document purporting to be an order for goods, issued by the Yee Hing shop, and unlawful possession of a forged "cheep" of the Yee Hing shop. The sentences were to run consecutively, which meant that the prisoner had to serve 12 months in jail.

Addressing the prisoner this morning, the Magistrate said that he had thought the case over during the week-end and had come to the conclusion that 12 months was excessive in view of the prisoner's youth and the fact that it was his first offence. He would therefore make the sentence to run concurrently.

Westminster guardians propose to provide cabs for 70 nurses at the Fulham-road Infirmary, costing £25,000, roughly £357 each.

FOOTBALL.

SATURDAY'S GAMES AND RESULTS.

POLICE v. HAWKINS.

The result of this match came as a big surprise for the Sailors and their supporters. They were sure reckoning on a 3-0 victory, but the Police with a very weak team played them to a goalless draw, thanks principally to their defence who played the game of their lives, especially Swan who has not been seen in such form since the Shield final.

In the first half play was of a very even nature possibly the Hawkins, who had the wind in their favour, getting slightly the better of exchanges. The Police had three chances this half, Johnson, Watson and Valentine all missing good chances of scoring.

In the second half with the wind in their favour, the Police had more of the game and Watson and Valentine again had chances to score, the latter being right through but owing to a heavy charge just previously was winded and had to shoot from well out whereas if he had gone on he would have surely scored. During one of the Hawkins attacks on the Police goal McLaren had the misfortune to handle in the penalty area. From the spot kick Swan brought off a wonderful save and succeeded in sending over the bar for a corner which was cleared by McWalter and the final whistle went for a goalless draw.

The Police are to be congratulated on their fine performance for they were playing with practically nine men only, both the outside right and the outside left being passengers. For the Sailors the centre forward played a good game, but his methods are rather on the rough side. He was pulled up no less than four times on Saturday. That spoils good football.

CLUB v. CARLISLE.

With a very changed team the Club had an easy victory over the Sailors, scoring no less than five times, the Carlisle failing to reply. G. Rodger was in goal, his brother going outside right, McPhail at inside right, and McCubbin turned out in his old position and played a very fine game indeed. McPhail won the toss and the Sailors kicked off against the wind. Club were early prominent and Forsyth was through only to be brought down in the penalty area, the resultant spot kick opening the score. Carlisle came into the picture but their centre forward put behind when well placed, from the kick Stewart received and pushed forward to Forsyth who went in and scored No. 2. Carlisle came again, but found McCubbin very safe, Blackwell for the Carlisle was playing a fine game and should have scored, but when in range he seemed over anxious and parted with the ball too soon. Valentine was responsible for the Club's third goal after Wright for the Sailors had had very hard lines with a shot that skimmed the bar with Rodgers beaten to the wide. Half time score—Club 3, Carlisle 0.

With the wind in their favour the Carlisle pressed from the restart, but McCubbin cleared and Forsyth receiving went in and scored No. 4 and his third. Four against the Club just outside the penalty area looked bad, Wright having hard luck with a fast shot that Rodgers just got to. From now on it was the club's game and they further increased their score through Valentine. They ran out winners as stated.

SOUTH CHINA v. DESPATCH.

Played on the Chinese ground. The Sailors ran out winners to the tune of 4 clear goals, much to everyone's surprise. They fully deserved their win for they played excellent football, but there was not a four goal difference in the play. The first goal was a misunderstanding for the Chinese left back thinking the ball had gone behind kicked to the goal keeper who let the ball into the net and the Referee awarded a goal. From the line the ball appeared to be cut but no whistle was heard and Fung had only himself to blame. Both teams now had plenty of opportunities to score but they were over anxious and good chances were missed. The Chinese especially missed an easy chance to equalize Chan Shykying the ball when well placed. Half time arrived with the Sailors one up.

In the second half with the wind in their favour, the Despatch practically had things all their own way. It appeared to be a case of shooting in goal, and but for the good play of the Chinese goalkeeper the score would have been heavier. White beat him twice and Henshaw added another, the final whistle going with the score as stated.

R.G.A. v. TAMAR.

Played at Sookumpoo, this game ended in a draw of one goal each.

CANTON'S CURRENCY.

FINANCIERS DISCUSS SALVAGE MEASURES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, Nov. 27.

A meeting has been held at the Finance Department, Canton's most prominent financiers attending, to devise means for restoring the depreciated paper currency.

Two main lines were agreed upon. One was the drawing of bonds (or a lottery) for government and confiscated property. The other was to encourage the use of notes by permitting the payment of all revenue in notes.

A banker pointed out that nearly the whole of the issues was in Canton. There were over ninety districts and he suggested that special men be sent to sell notes at par for payment of revenue. The abattoir, wine, tobacco and leather taxes should also be paid in notes and a steady demand would be created.

The banker expressed the opinion that if the whole province could be taught to use it, the paper currency would soon revert to a much higher value.

The Finance Commissioner is submitting the proposal to the Civil Governor for approval.

Both teams missed chances, the Tamar especially having a lot of bad "fosses," but they were not playing their usual game, and the Gunners' backs were pretty safe. Half time saw no score.

The Gunners attacked from the restart and after about ten minutes, McHugh scored for them with a shot that Routley should have saved. A few minutes later Cousins missed a fine chance of increasing the score from a pass from Harris, hanging on too long and being robbed. A misunderstanding between the R. G. A. backs saw their goalkeeper run out to clear but he missed the ball and the Tamar forwards being well up had no difficulty in putting the ball in the net. Midfield play followed until the final whistle.

AMBROSE v. TITANIA.

On Sookumpoo "B" ground, the Titania, playing their first game in this League, were unlucky to lose by the odd goal in three. The first half was very even, Edmonds scoring for the Ambrose who led at the interval by the only goal scored.

In the second half Price made the scores level, and up to a few minutes of time this was the score. The Ambrose got away and Welbourne scored the winning goal of the game.

SECOND DIVISION.

KOWLOON v. AMBROSE.

Played at Hung Hom, this match resulted in a win for Kowloon by the odd goal in four.

MARAZION v. WARDERS.

Played on Navy "B," this resulted in a win for the Sailors by 2 goals to one. The Warders have now scored their first goal in League football.

KINGS v. TITANIA.

Played at Sookumpoo. The Soldiers ran away with the game to the tune of 6 goals, the Sailors failing to reply.

R.G.A. v. POLICE.

This was an easy win for the Gunners who scored 5 goals, the Police replying with one.

ST. JOSEPH'S v. CARLISLE.

The College just managed to win this game by 2 to 1. The result should have been a draw, for the Sailors missed a penalty.

HAWKINS v. SOUTH CHINA "A."

The Flagship's second string defeated the Chinese by 2 goals to none.

UNITED v. UNIVERSITY.

A very fast game which the United just managed to win by 2 goals to one. A draw would have been a better result for there was no difference in the two teams.

Owing to the late arrival in port of H. M. S. Durbin their match against the Chinese "B" was postponed, as also was their First Division game against Kowloon.

FANLING GOLF.

A. B. STEWART WINS CHAMPIONSHIP.

At Fanling yesterday Mr. A. B. Stewart won the golf championship for the third time by defeating Mr. T. W. Hill by seven up and five to play. His previous victories were in 1916 and 1919.

The weather was cold, but the course was in good condition and favoured a good game.

A large number of interested spectators, including the Hon. Mr. A. G. Stephen, President of the Club, followed the players round the course both in the morning and afternoon.

Although the conditions were favourable generally, the golf was not of a high standard. The putting was indifferent, and bogey was beaten only on three occasions in 31 holes, twice by the winner and once by Hill.

A fresh breeze blew in the morning, and this gave Hill some trouble. His drives, which were often high, were carried away. Stewart also had some trouble from the same cause, but he played a steadier game generally. He out-distanced his opponents with his driving, but failed on the greens. The outward journey was covered by the winner in 43 against his opponent's 47. With Stewart leading 4 up at the turn, Hill started somewhat and managed to halt 10th and 11th holes, and taking the next three holes fairly easily, he reduced the lead to one. He was at his best at the 12th hole (The Gem) which he did one under bogey. This was the only occasion on which bogey was beaten in the morning. The 15th and 16th holes went to Stewart, but Hill took the 17th with a long putt. Hill continued to play steadily, and halving the Home hole, was 2 down at the Tiffin interval.

The approximate morning scores were:

Stewart: Out, 5, 5, 3, 5, 5, 6, 4, 5, 6; Home, 6, 5, 3, 6, 5, 5, 4, 6, 5, Total, 88.
Hill: Out, 6, 5, 4, 5, 5, 6, 4, 6, 6; Home, 6, 5, 5, 4, 5, 6, 6, 5, 5, Total, 91.

Stewart started very confidently in the afternoon, and took the first three holes fairly easily before Hill asserted himself and halved the 4th. Stewart took the next and the 6th and 7th were again halved. Then Stewart again went to the fore and at the turning, had a big advantage of 8 up. Hill then succeeded in winning a couple of holes, but at the 31st Stewart won the match by holing out in one under bogey.

The afternoon scores were:

Stewart: Out, 4, 4, 3, 5, 4, 5, 4, 4, 6; Home, 5, 6, 5, 4, 5, 4, 6, 5, 5, Total, 89.
Hill: Out, 5, 6, 4, 5, 6, 5, 4, 6, 5, 4, 7; Home, 5, 6, 4, 5, Total, 95.

Morning Afternoon Total for Round, 88 90, 177.
Hill 91 95, 186.

PREVIOUS WINNERS.

1913—J. Clark.
1914—J. Clark.
1915—Capt. C. Campbell.
1916—A. B. Stewart.
1917—A. Ritchie.
1918—R. A. Lawson.
1919—A. B. Stewart.
1920—R. L. D. Wedhouse.
1921—R. M. Smith.

Mr. B. D. Crawford Morgan had charge of the game.

At the conclusion of the match Mr. A. G. Stephen, President of the Club, handed the Championship and runner-up trophies to Mr. Stewart and Mr. Hill respectively. He remarked that they were meagre looking cups and that they would be replaced by trophies more worthy of the occasion. They had seen a very fine match. There was nothing of an international character about it, because both players were Scots. He concluded by saying that the best player had won the match.

OPERA SEASON OVER.

ITALIAN COMPANY'S FINE RECORD.

How often does the National Anthem surprise a Hongkong theatre audience still in its seats? Rarely enough, one trows. This unusual compliment Saturday night's Theatre Royal audience paid the Grand Italian Opera Company which crowned its success here with a brilliant second performance of "Lucia di Lammermoor." That the audience, who the curtain had fallen the last time, should remain seated to applaud the Alfies was a tribute perhaps more expressive than any other they have received during their fortnight's season here. Having staged some of the finest works in opera and staged them with rare artistry, the Italian Grand Opera Company leaves many pleasant memories among the Colony's music-lovers, who will assuredly extend an equally warm welcome should the Company sing here again.

PERKINS, November 26.
A Chinese news agency last night reported that the judicial authorities have issued a fresh warrant for the arrest of Lo Wen-kan.

P KING POLITICS.

CONFLICTING REPORTS CURRENT.

PERKINS, November 26.
The most conflicting reports are circulating regarding the political situation and the activities of the various groups now engaged in bitter strife.

The President undoubtedly intended to issue a mandate accepting the resignation of Wang Chung-hui and his followers.

Circles unfavourable to Parliament say a group of members, learning of the President's intention and wanting Guang Shou to be appointed Acting Premier, visited the Presidency yesterday afternoon and strongly protested against the appointment of Kao Ling-wei.

Any way no mandate has been issued.

Kao Ling-wei and Sun Tan-lin identified themselves yesterday evening with the resignation of Wang Chung-hui, in a circular telegram signed by all the late Cabinet members except Kao Ling-wei and Chang Shou-tsung stating that the Cabinet had resigned and they did not intend to attend office further.

It is reported that Kao Ling-wei will proceed to Peking and Li Yung-wei to Moscow.

Meanwhile it is reported Li Yung-wei intends to quit and Kao Ling-wei and Chang Shou-tsung will nominally remain Cabinet members. They are in conflict of opinion.

WATCHMAKERS' TROUBLE: MEDIATION.

The watchmakers' dispute has not yet been settled. Mr. Ip Lan-chue, the Secretary of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, is intervening and both sides are ready to fall in with his mediation. At a recent meeting in the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs, the workmen's delegates denied they were officials of the Guild. Altogether over two hundred men are out of work, but about thirty have returned from the Guild and have returned to their previous employment.

EIGHTEEN STONE WOMAN FALLS ON LITTLE GIRL.

Louisa Butler, a girl of 8, whose home is at St. Luke's square, Canton Town, met with a strange and serious accident whilst spending the day at Theydon Bois, the summer resort of countless thousands of children during the season.

She was ascending the stairs of the hotel shelter at Gray's Retreat, met in hand to enjoy the slide down. Walking in front of her was a woman who weighed 18st. bound on the same ground.

Just when nearing the top the woman slipped and fell, knocking down the child behind her and pinning Louisa under her at the bottom of the stairs. With assistance a police constable pulled the woman from off the child, when it was found the latter had sustained a greenstick fracture of the right thigh, and is now an inmate of Epping Cottage Hospital.

"SUI AN" PIRACY.

SHANGHAI NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

The seizure of the "Sui An" on Sunday afternoon by a gang of organized pirates and their murderous assault and robbery of the passengers, remind us once more of the ugly trails which lie not far below the surface of this unlovely, agreeable race, says the Shanghai Times. For the most part, banditry and piracy, though in situations of great antiquity with the Chinese, have found their victims among people of their own colour, and it is rather a shock to learn that neither respect nor fear will restrain them from attacks on foreigners when the opportunity appears to be a good one. Reports say that four of the pirates, one of them a woman, were wounded, which will not be a matter for any deep regret though we cannot but think the many casualties, including two deaths, inflicted by them on the passengers and officers an abnormally high toll in addition to the few thousand dollars worth of loot they secured.

Lives are cheaper in China than in the West, and it is possible that the Chinese pirates did not give a second thought to the heroic deaths of the two Indians, or stop to find out whether the Captain and First Officer were dead or only wounded. The event, in any case, is a reminder that foreigners in China and Chinese waters are only as safe as long as motives of opportunity for injury are simultaneously lacking. In an extreme case, we have a Boxer revolt, and with several weak governments in the country, we might well have another one. Roids of all kinds, whether by land or sea, are likely to be injurious in the highest degree to the Chinese themselves, and in their own interests, they would be well advised to put their house in order and give such protection to foreigners as their powers permit. The elements of international good will require this course, and the state of foreign trade, to which the Chinese cannot hold themselves indifferent, likewise demands it. Such narratives may afford good material for works of fiction, but the sooner it is realized that they are out of harmony with civilized life the better for all concerned.

CHINA'S PIRATES.

In this Flowery Land that is not so fragrant as we should like it to be, nor its natives quite so celestial as they might be, it is perhaps not to be wondered at that it is still the home of many hold, bad bandits and pernicious pirates, says the Shanghai Mercury. The detailed narrative of the piracy on board the "Sui An" while voyaging last Sunday between Macao and her home-ward trip to Hongkong will cause most people who read the story to continue to have serious misgivings with regard to China's progress towards a civilization worth having. From time to time during the past dozen years foreigners and Chinese passengers in South China have been subject to the menace—apparently ever present—of wholesale robbery by desperate Chinese, so-called pirates, who usually travel as ordinary passengers and then, fully armed and numerically powerful, set about to control the ship, rob and murder as the situation may demand. Some half dozen years ago a vessel flying the British flag, in the present case, was not only attacked, at about the same place, and the merchants not only robbed and terrified their victims—mostly their own countrymen and countrywomen—but poured kerosene over the deck, set it ablaze, and camped and left hundreds of helpless people to perish. It is a ghastly business and one in which China holds a most notorious position in the eyes of the world.

THE "SUI AN" ATTACK.

The story of the attack on the "Sui An" makes very good reading from the dramatic point of view, but it is a matter that ought and doubtless will be deeply deplored by every decent person who reads it. Such happenings would disgrace any country and, in so far as they affect foreigners, most of whom are merely sojourning in this island and consequently are virtually under the protection of the Chinese Government, they bring a dishonour upon China. The Chinese Government may be inclined to believe that a certain amount of the responsibility is lifted off their shoulders by the fact that in the "Sui An" piracy the vessel flew the British flag and was in proximity to a British Colony. That does not alter the fact that it was Chinese who were the pirates and who treacherously made use of their position as passengers. Had a British vessel been brought timorously from Hongkong, a very different result would have been effected, but it is of course impossible to expect

DETECTIVE'S DEATH.

WING WO STREET AFFAIR.

MURDER TRIAL BEGINS.

The shooting of Detective Sergeant Sin Chuen in Wing Wo Street on September 29 was investigated by Mr. Justice Gompertz and a jury at the Criminal Sessions to-day when two men, Chu Kam and Li Shing-cheung were brought up on an indictment of murder.

The members of the jury who heard the case were—Messrs J. Hooper, (foreman), G. Gerken, S. Baker, V. M. Barnard, J. E. Joseph, W. K. Reynolds and J. O. Sheppard.

In charge of the Crown case was the Attorney General (the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp K.C.). The prisoners were defended by Mr. Campbell Prosser.

Outlining the facts to the jury, the Attorney General said that the murder was the sequel to an armed robbery which took place at 26 Wing Wo Street. It was no part of the Crown case that either of these two men actually fired the shot which killed the detective; in fact the evidence tended to show that the second prisoner at all events, did not fire it. It would be submitted, however, that the doctrine of "common purpose" applied and that on the evidence they were both guilty of murder.

Sir Chuan Mr. Kemp explained, was with another detective named Lam Kwan near No. 6 Wing Wo Street when they saw a gang of men standing outside the door of No. 26. The men began to move away quickly and then—The detectives pursued them and in the chase Sin Chuen was killed by a shot fired by one of the gang. An other detective named Mak Wa was going along Des Voeux Road when the affair occurred and later on he helped Lam Kwan to capture one of the prisoners in The Sun Company's premises. Another detective named Kwong Heung, who was walking along Wing Lok Street, was instrumental with a Chinese constable, in bringing about the capture of the other prisoner on the scene.

Evidence regarding the robbery, the Attorney General indicated would show that two men entered a shop on the first and second floors of No. 26 Wing Wo Street and to one of the partners they produced two baskets which had they said, been sent from Macao. The partner was just about to go upstairs when a revolver was pointed at him and he was gagged and put into a culch. Four other men followed, several of the intruders being armed with revolvers and some with daggers. While they were still in the shop a window was blown and the robbers ran out.

Charged at the police station, Chu Kam said: "I did not assault him; it was not I who assaulted him." Regarding a charge of robbery preferred against him, he said that he did not steal the things. When he was arrested a gold watch which had been stolen from 26 Wing Wo Street a few minutes before was found in his possession. At the Magistrate's hearing he stated that he picked this up in Des Voeux Road. The other prisoner, when charged with murder, denied that he killed Sin Chuen and said he was in the Sun Company's premises. He said he did not go to Wing Wo Street and did not know where it was.

The Attorney General said that altogether 25 witnesses, several of whom had identified the prisoners would be called. Although there was no evidence that either man fired the fatal shot it would still be submitted that if the jury could be satisfied that one of the party did it in pursuance of a common purpose and that the prisoners were aiding and abetting then the prisoners were guilty of murder.

The hearing of evidence, which is expected to occupy about two days, was then proceeded with.

CANTON BANK FAILS.

EXCESSIVE SPECULATION BLAMED.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

CANTON, Nov. 27.
A Canton native bank has failed owing to excessive speculation. Its indebtedness is expected to exceed two lakhs.

Another bank, which had only recently commenced business, suffers to the extent of twenty thousand dollars paid to the other for remittance to Hongkong, just before it suspended payment.

Rumour states that a prominent member of the Provincial Assembly is a sleeping partner in the bank.

The Hongkong-Macao route to be controlled by gunboats in such a manner. The Chinese and no others are to blame for such desperate piracies, and as far as may be they should be held accountable.

DEMPSY V. A MOOSE.

KNOCK-OUT WIN FOR THE MOOSE.

Jack Dempsey, the heavy weight boxing champion, was knocked out by a moose.

One of the party of which Dempsey was a member returned to St. John's New Brunswick, in the morning and said that Dempsey had been hurt by a large moose.

Disregarding warnings he had seized a animal by the horns. The moose tossed Dempsey a distance of 20 feet. The fall completely minded him, but except for bruises he was none the worse.

Dempsey has just learned of the defeat of Carpenter by Battling Siki in Paris. He had never heard of Siki, but declared that he was willing to meet him any time.

Canton's vernacular press is served for news by a number of reporter agencies. A number of women graduates have just formed an agency and will be in the field within the course of the week.

LAUSANNE

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
The Commission has decided to appoint a sub-commission to examine the question of the demilitarisation of certain Aegean Islands, which have been occupied by the Greeks since 1912.

LAUSANNE, November 26th.
The First Commission deliberated on the sub-commission's report, which proposes the demilitarisation of a zone of thirty kilometers on each side of Maroneia and the formation of an international commission to construct and supervise a free port at Dedagatch or neighbourhood. The sub-commission will probably consist of representatives appointed by Great Britain, France, Italy, Bulgaria, Turkey, Jugoslavia and Rumania.

Bulgaria is dissatisfied with the decision regarding Dedagatch, on the ground that such an outlet would be useless to them unless they had unhindered possession thereof.
Isnet Pacha, in consenting to the demilitarisation, remarked that Turkey is making a sacrifice in the suggested establishment of guarantees for the inviolability of the demilitarised zone.

LATER.
An arrangement has been reached providing Bulgaria with an outlet on the Aegean Sea.

LATER.
The arrangement providing Bulgaria with an outlet on the Aegean Sea is regarded as the next best thing to Bulgaria's demand for possession of Dedagatch, though it is felt that M. Venizelos might have stretched a point by ceding Dedagatch, thus conciliating Bulgaria.

The Turks appear pleased at the arrangement, because it tends to thwart the attempt to reconstitute the Balkan League.

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
The American observer, Mr. Child, in a statement to the First Commission, emphasised the sentiment of the American people, who overwhelmingly favoured the policy laid down in the memorandum of October 10th, in reply to the invitation to be represented on the conference, namely, the assumption that the Allies will not carry into effect agreements in respect of Turkish territory, which would conflict with the principle of equality of economic opportunity, and the open door.

Mr. Child was subsequently interrogated by journalists regarding the special meaning of his statement, but declined to reply.

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
A discussion in the French Press, regarding the possibility of the retrocession of Mosul to Turkey, and a re-arrangement of oil interests in Mosul, has excited much interest here.
It is reported that a German, who is interested in the German concessions, has arrived and is communicating with the American observer, Mr. Child, but trustworthy information is unreliable.

M. CLEMENCEAU'S U.S. TOUR.

Boston, November 25th.
Cheering crowds greeted M. Clemenceau as he landed at Tremont Temple, where he defended himself against the charge of militarism, made in the Senate yesterday.
WASHINGTON, November 25th.
The British Embassy, in a statement, takes exception to M. Clemenceau's recent declaration that Great Britain, "secured a guarantee of national safety" by the sinking of the surrendered German fleet at Scapa Flow, in 1919.

The Embassy denies any implication that the British authorities wilfully permitted the sinkings.

LAWS OF WAR.

LONDON, November 25th.
A commission, consisting of representatives from the United States, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, will meet at the Hague on December 12th, to consider possible changes in the laws relating to war, since the Hague Conference of 1907.

NEAR EAST.

ATHENS, November 25th.
The Cabinet has resigned in consequence of the refusal of M. Zaimis to assume the Premiership.
Following the denunciation of the British Minister urging that ex-Ministers and others on trial for treason, sentenced to death, should not be executed, M. Gecatas is forming a Cabinet, with members of the Revolutionary Committee.
Reuter's correspondent learns that Mr. Lindley will break off relations and leave Greece if the execution is carried out.
ATHENS, November 25th.
The post-revolutionary political situation is rendered more complicated by the announcement of the resignation of the ministry. The military authorities are adopting an uncompromising attitude on the question of ex-Ministers now being tried for treason.

PANIS, November 25th.
Advices from Constantinople state that the Commandants of the Allied police have decided to entrust the policing of the city to the Turkish police, only intervening when their own nationals are affected.
An official statement from Angora denies the reported desire to expel the whole of the Christian population from Antolia. It adds that Christians are pursuing their occupations in peace. Those who left have done so under the free right of movement recently allowed.

CANADIAN DEFENCES.

OTTAWA, November 25th.
An announcement has been made that the amalgamation of the Militia, Navy and Air Force, as one department, under the Minister of Defence, will become effective on January 1st.
Commenting on this statement, the United States War Secretary says that Canada has trained one hundred thousand men this year. The Minister of Defence declared that the number trained was 27,000, with a permanent instruction force of four thousand, the total military expenditure being a dollar and a half per capita of the population, while the expenditure of the United States is $14 per capita.

ERSKINE CHILDERS.

LONDON, November 25th.
The execution of Erskine Childers has focused attention on the new phase of the Irish question. The newspapers emphasise that the Free State Government has exhausted all efforts to conciliate the rebels, and has now decided to use a strong hand, in order to protect their own troops and citizens, and also to prevent the national life being brought to a standstill by the irregulars.

New York, November 24th.
Disapproving of the Provisional Government's punitive measures, Mr. Connolly, Free State Council General, has resigned and returned to Ireland.
Ireland is deeply stirred by the execution of Childers, and apprehensions are expressed regarding the Republicans' attempt at reprisals.

The editorials in this morning's newspapers seem agreed that the Free State authorities had no choice but to accept Childers' challenge, as guardians of the welfare of the state. Even the Daily News terms their case "overwhelmingly strong."

Other newspapers speak highly of Childers' bravery and ability, and deplore the sad end to such a promising life, but dwell on the almost irreparable injury his fanaticism has inflicted on his adopted country.

Seven of the eight men who were concerned with Childers in the habeas corpus proceeding, received sentences varying from five years' penal servitude to twelve months' imprisonment. One of the accused was acquitted.
Four hundred political prisoners have been removed from gaol at Limerick. They were conveyed to the docks under a heavy escort, and placed aboard a steamer which departed for an unknown destination.

LATER.
Dublin is quiet, and the feeling of uneasiness, created by the execution of Childers, has apparently disappeared.

The inter-Allied Military Mission has strongly protested to the German Government, in regard to a crowd attacking British and French control officers at Ingolstadt, Bavaria.
The Commission is immediately sending officers of various nationalities to Munich, to reinforce the district committee, and show the German Government that the result of such incidents will be a considerable tightening up of inter-Allied control.

INDIAN NON-CO-OPERATORS.

CALCUTTA, November 25th.
After four days' discussion, the All-India Congress Committee failed to achieve unanimity on the question whether non-co-operators should be allowed to participate in the elections for the new Legislature, with the object of weakening the Government.
The question was finally referred to the National Congress at Gaya, by 27 votes to 12. The question of boycotting British goods was referred to the same Congress.

Taikoo batted first and scored 69, Ewo scored 75 for 8 wickets but at one period of the innings the score was 30 runs with 5 wickets down when Cornaby and Lyon pulled the game round. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stewart, Mr. G. M. Young and a large number of ladies.

"THE TEMPEST."

It is said that Prospero's speeches are a more direct expression of Shakespeare's own sentiments and intentions than are to be found in any of his other plays. It is true that Prospero the Magician when he says "deeper than did ever plummet sound" "I'll drown my book" and "thence retire me to my Milan" is Shakespeare the poet, flinging his audience that "The Tempest" is his last play written before he retires to the country life of Stratford "where every third thought shall be my grave" (Bookings opens at Montreux on the morning of December 1 for the A.D.C.'s production.)

IF SLEEP DOES NOT REFRESH YOU.

People who are tired out, who are in the morning feeling the sleep has not refreshed them, are in a state of nervous exhaustion that borders on the condition that doctors call neurasthenia. The causes are varied. Continuous work, mental or physical, without proper attention to diet and exercise, also worry over the struggle for success. Excuses of almost any kind may produce it. Sometimes diseases like influenza will cause neurasthenia. So also will a severe shock, intense anxiety or grief.

The symptoms are over sensitivity, irritability, a disposition to worry over trifles, headache, possibly nausea. The treatment in cases like this is one of nutrition of the nerve cells requiring a good diet and rest. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed toward building up the blood. Dr. Williams' pink pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anemia, or bloodiness, shown by most neurasthenic patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills.

A useful book "Nervous Health" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. 30 Essex Street, London, W. If you mention this paper, Dr. Williams' pink pills are sold by all chemists, or can be obtained at $1.50 per bottle, six for $8.00, post free from the above address.

COMPANY MEETING.

CHINA LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY, LTD.

THE NEW SHARE ISSUE.

The proposal to increase the Company's capital to $1,500,000 by the issue of 100,000 new shares at a premium of $5 per share met with some opposition at an extraordinary general meeting of the China Light and Power Company, Ltd., held on Saturday morning at the offices of the General Managers, Messrs. Sheehan, Tomes & Co.

Mr. R. Sheehan presided and there were also present Sir Paul Chater, Dr. J. W. Noble, and Mr. H. P. White (Directors), Mr. Poon I Chio (Secretary), and Messrs. C. A. da Rosa, H. H. Taylor, W. J. Hawker, A. S. Ellis, A. A. Botelho, A. L. Austin, E. F. Ellis, J. M. Alves, A. A. Cuterrez, Lee Hy San, A. V. Apear and F. J. Tavares (shareholders).

After the notice convening the meeting had been read, the Chairman said:—Gentlemen,—As shown in the notice which has just been read this meeting has been convened for the purpose of increasing the capital of the Company by the issue of 100,000 further shares of the nominal value of $5 each. These shares are to be offered to existing shareholders in the ratio of one new share for each two old shares that they hold and at a premium of $5 a share. Shareholders are not to be entitled to any fraction of a new share in respect of an odd share held by them. The General Managers are given power to dispose of any of the new shares not taken up in any manner they think fit. There will thus be raised $1,000,000 additional funds which the Company will employ in the manner indicated in my speech at the annual general meeting the Company held on the 9th of this month. I do not think there is anything further with which I need deal, but if any shareholders would like to ask questions or seek any explanation, I shall endeavour to answer questions and give such explanation to the best of my ability.

No questions were asked and the Chairman then proceeded to move the three resolutions, recently advertised, which show how it is proposed to issue the new shares.

When Mr. H. P. White had seconded the adoption of the resolutions Mr. C. A. da Rosa said that he agreed the new capital was needed but expressed the view that the premium of $5 per share was much too high and unwarranted by the circumstances. He suggested the issue of the $5 talks of debentures now held by the Company's bankers as collateral and maintained that there was no justification in the Company's dividend history to exact a premium of $100 per cent. for new shares nor could future prospects be said to be so bright as to warrant it. The present high quotation for the Company's shares, Mr. da Rosa said, was due to fortuitous circumstances which might disappear sooner than they expected.

Mr. da Rosa then moved an amendment that the 100,000 new shares be offered in the first instance (in the proportion of one new share for every complete number of two old shares held by them respectively) to the members of the Company who on the 25th day of November 1922, are registered as holders of the existing 200,000 shares, so that on acceptance of the offer the nominal amount due in respect of such 100,000 shares be payable as follows: $1.25 on January 4, $1.25 on April 5, $1.25 on July 6, and $1.25 on September 27.

Mr. da Rosa's remarks were supported by Mr. J. M. Alves who seconded the amendment.

In reply the Chairman indicated that the question of issuing debentures had been considered but it was thought that they would not be able to get the money because the Company was not of sufficient long standing. He pointed out that the market price of the shares to-day was $14 and they could not pay an adequate dividend on that figure unless the shareholders came to their assistance and took the new shares at a premium.

Mr. da Rosa disagreed with the Chairman's announcement that the amendment, on being put to the vote, had been lost, and he asked that a poll should be taken. It was eventually decided that this should be done and that the Board of Directors should decide whether the transfer books of the Company should be closed in the interim. The date of the poll was fixed for December 9.

LAUSANNE.

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
The Commission has decided to appoint a sub-commission to examine the question of the demilitarisation of certain Aegean Islands, which have been occupied by the Greeks since 1912.

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
The First Commission deliberated on the sub-commission's report, which proposes the demilitarisation of a zone of thirty kilometres on each side of Maritza; and the formation of an international commission to construct and supervise a free port at Dedagatch or neighbourhood. The sub-commission will probably consist of representatives appointed by Great Britain, France, Italy, Bulgaria, Turkey, Jugoslavia and Rumania.

Bulgaria is dissatisfied with the decision regarding Dedagatch, on the ground that such an outlet would be useless to them unless they had unhampered possession thereof.

Ismet Pasha, in consenting to the demilitarisation, remarked that Turkey is making a sacrifice in the suggested establishment of guarantees for the inviolability of the demilitarised zone.

An arrangement has been reached providing Bulgaria with an outlet on the Aegean Sea.

The arrangement providing Bulgaria with an outlet on the Aegean Sea is regarded as the next best thing to Bulgaria's demand for possession of Dedagatch, though it is felt that M. Vozizlof might have stretched a point by ceding Dedagatch, thus conciliating Bulgaria.

The Turks appear pleased at the arrangement, because it tends to thwart the attempt to reconstitute the Balkan League.

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
The American observer, Mr. Child, in a statement to the First Commission, emphasised the sentiment of the American people, who overwhelmingly favoured the policy laid down in the memorandum of October 10th, in reply to the invitation to be represented on the Conference, namely, the assumption that the Allies will not carry into effect agreements in respect of Turkish territory, which would conflict with the principle of equality of economic opportunity, and the open door.

Mr. Child was subsequently interrogated by journalists regarding the special meaning of his statement, but declined to reply.

LAUSANNE, November 25th.
A discussion in the French Press, regarding the possibility of the retrocession of Mosul to Turkey, and a re-arrangement of oil interests in Mosul, has excited much interest here.

It is reported that a German, who is interested in the German concessions, has arrived and is communicating with the American observer, Mr. Child, but trustworthy information is unobtainable.

M. CLEMENCEAU'S U.S. TOUR.
Boston, November 25th.
Cheering crowds greeted M. Clemenceau as he entered Tremont Temple, where he defended himself against the charges of infidelity, made in the Senate yesterday.

WASHINGTON, November 25th.
The British Embassy, in a statement, takes exception to M. Clemenceau's recent declaration that Great Britain "secured a guarantee of national safety" by the sinking of the surrendered German fleet at Scapa Flow, in 1919.

The Embassy denies any implication that the British authorities willfully permitted the sinkings.

LAW OF WAR.

LONDON, November 25th.
A commission, consisting of representatives from the United States, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, will meet at The Hague on December 12th, to consider possible changes in the laws relating to war, since the Hague Conference of 1907.

NEAR EAST.
ATHENS, November 25th.
The Cabinet has resigned in consequence of the refusal of M. Zaimis to assume the Premiership.

Following the discharge of the British Minister, the ex-Ministers and others on trial for treason, sentenced to death, should not be executed, M. Goutas is forming a Cabinet, with members of the Revolutionary Committee.

Reuter's correspondent learns that Mr. Lindley will break off relations and leave Greece if the execution is carried out.

ATHENS, November 25th.
The post-revolutionary political situation is rendered more complicated by the announcement of the resignation of the ministry. The military authorities are adopting an uncompromising attitude on the question of ex-Ministers now being tried for treason.

PARIS, November 25th.
Advisers from Constantinople state that the Commandants of the Allied police have decided to entrust the policing of the city to the Turkish police, only intervening when their own nationals are affected.

An official statement from Ankara denies the reported decision to expel the whole of the Christian population from Anatolia. It adds that Christians are pursuing their occupations in peace. Those who left have done so under the free right of movement recently allowed.

CANADIAN DEFENCES.

OTTAWA, November 25th.
An announcement has been made that the amalgamation of the Militia, Navy and Air Force, as one department, under the Minister of Defence, will become effective on January 1st.

Commenting on this statement, the United States War Secretary says that Canada has trained one hundred thousand men this year. The Minister of Defence declared that the number trained was 27,300, with a permanent instructional force of four thousand, the total military expenditure being a dollar and a half per capita of the population, while the expenditure of the United States is $14 per capita.

ERSKINE CHILDERS.

LONDON, November 25th.
The execution of Erskine Childers has focused attention on the new phase of the Irish question. The newspapers emphasise that the Free State Government has exhausted all efforts to conciliate the rebels, and has now decided to use a strong hand, in order to protect their own troops and citizens, and also to prevent the national life being brought to a standstill by the insurgents.

New York, November 24th.
Disapproving of the Provisional Government's punitive measures, Mr. Connolly, Free State Consul-General, has resigned and returned Ireland.

Ireland is deeply stirred by the execution of Childers, and apprehensions are expressed regarding the Republicans' attempt at reprisals.

The editorials in this morning's newspapers seem agreed that the Free State authorities had no choice but to accept Childers' challenge, as guardians of the welfare of the state. Even the Daily News terms their case "overwhelmingly strong."

Other newspapers speak highly of Childers' bravery and ability, and deplore the end to such a promising life, but dwell on the almost irreparable injury his fanaticism has inflicted on his adopted country.

Seven of the eight men who were concerned with Childers in the Hubert corpus proceeding, received sentences varying from five years' penal servitude to twelve months' imprisonment. One of the accused was acquitted.

Four hundred political prisoners have been removed from gaol at Limerick. They were conveyed to the docks under a heavy escort, and placed aboard a steamer which departed for an unknown destination.

Dublin is quiet, and the feeling of uneasiness, created by the execution of Childers, has apparently disappeared.

A LESSON TO THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT.
BERLIN, November 25th.
The inter-Allied Military Mission has strongly protested to the German Government, in regard to a crowd attacking British and French control officers at Ingolstadt, Bavaria.

The Commission is immediately sending officers of various nationalities to Munich to reinforce the district committee, and show the German Government that the result of such incidents will be a considerable tightening up of inter-Allied control.

CONTROL OF ANTHRAX.

LONDON, November 25th.
The League of Nations Labour Office announces that the International Advisory Committee on anthrax meets in London on December 8th, under the Chairmanship of Sir W. Middlebrook. The experts nominated by the respective Governments include Sir Thomas Oliver, Australia; Lieut. Colonel Hutchinson, India; Prof. W. Dixon, South Africa and Dr. Hosokai, Japan.

INDIAN NON-CO-OPERATORS.
CALCUTTA, November 25th.
After four days' discussion the All-India Congress Committee failed to achieve unanimity on the question whether non-co-operators should be allowed to participate in the elections for the Legislature, with the object of weakening reforms.

The question was finally referred to the National Congress at Gaya by 27 votes to 12. The question of boycotting British goods was referred to the same Congress.

Record crowds attended the world baseball matches played in New York between the 'Giants' and the 'Yanks.' This photograph of a section of the attendance was taken from an aeroplane.

Jacqueline Lebaudy & Mrs. Jacques Lebaudy

Mrs. Jacques Lebaudy, widow of the millionaire self-styled "Emperor of Sahara," whom she shot to death in their palatial home on Long Island in 1919, and her daughter, Miss Jacqueline, were brides in a double wedding in Paris, the groom being Henri Sudreau, a French detective, and his son, Roger.

Lord Mountbatten and his bride greet America's baseball hero.

Major O.H. Belding, Capt. D.C. Dwyer, Capt. Easley & Walters, etc.

These are the officers who command the police guard at the White House and protect President Harding.

Mrs. Violet D. Smith, Paris obtained a divorce in Chicago because she alleged her husband confessed he loved another woman and that when she was forced to accompany her husband and the other woman to the theatre she acted as servant and carried the other woman's wraps. She declared her husband told her he regretted he could not marry the other woman and have his first wife, Violet, live with them, "because she was so motherly."

Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, wife of the Philadelphia traction magnate, and her pet, Dinty Moore, at White Sulphur Springs.

Ulric McHale, only thirteen, is believed to be the youngest college student in America, being enrolled in the Catholic University in Washington, D. C.

Christy Mathewson

The greatest of all world baseball series heroes—Christy Mathewson—well recovered from his long fight against tuberculosis, saw his first world series in three years, acting as a reporter.

Owing to alterations in the heating system of the reptile house in the London Zoo it was necessary to move the huge snakes, and this is the careless way the keepers treated them.
